

Design requirements investigation

Make a list of design requirements that are needed for your solution design.

Things think about:

Think about the environment in which your innovation is situated, e.g: PESTEL analysis.

Would you consider your solution design an incremental or a radical innovation?

Encoutered "infrastructure" problems. e.g. lack of complementary products or services

The estimated implementation time

Is there a frugal alternative to your design?